San Francisco Bus Jacuzzi Family Vineyards Bus Artesa Vineyards & Winery Bus San Francisco

ALL DAY

Our journey begins in San Francisco, with the first stop at Treasure Island for a panoramic view of the San Francisco Bay and postcard-perfect photos of the skyline. Next, we proceed to Jacuzzi Family Vineyards to sample local wines and premium olive oil. This is followed by a leisurely stroll through Sonoma Plaza, the largest town square in California, where you can enjoy lunch at a Michelin-recommended restaurant or a casual picnic on a bench – the choice is yours. We then head to the ultra-modern "Vineyard with the Best Scenery" – Artesa Vineyards & Winery – to taste their signature Pinot Noir and Chardonnay while admiring the Spanish-inspired courtyard. The final stop is Battery Spencer, offering breathtaking views of the twin valleys' vineyards and an unparalleled photo opportunity of the Golden Gate Bridge. Finally, we return to San Francisco by vehicle, concluding a delightful day.

Itinerary:

San Francisco ? Treasure Island (15 mins) ? Sonoma ? Jacuzzi Family Vineyards (Tastings included, 60 mins) ? Sonoma Plaza (120 mins) ? Napa ? Artesa Vineyards & Winery (Tastings included, 60 mins) ? Battery Spencer (25 mins) ? San Francisco

Note:

Guests who do not drink alcohol may switch to grape juice on site. No refund will be issued for the complimentary wine tasting activity.

ALL DAY

Treasure Island

Treasure Island is a man-made island adjacent to Yerba Buena Island in the middle of San Francisco Bay. It was built in the 1930s for an expo in 1939 that celebrated the completion of the Golden Gate Bridge and San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge (the Bay Bridge route crosses Yerba Buena Island). During WWII the island was converted to military use and it remained that way until the 1990s.

Jacuzzi Family Vineyards

Fred and Nancy Cline built the Jacuzzi Family Vineyards in 2005 as an homage to Fred's grandfather, Valeriano Jacuzzi. Jacuzzi invented the namesake spa pump in his youth and later inspired his grandson love of winemaking. The winery offers delicious Italian style wines that include Teroldego, Barbera, Moscato, Arneis and Pinot Grigio and so many more! Guests who visit quickly become Italian enthusiasts and wine lovers.

Sonoma Plaza

Welcome to the heart of Sonoma Valley. Step into Sonoma Plaza, and you'll feel as though time slows down. Not only is this the largest town square in California, but it may also be the most flavorful—whether you're craving gourmet cuisine or crispy empanadas, every desire can be satisfied here. Stroll past historic adobe buildings, drop into a tasting room, enjoy a picnic under ancient trees, or simply wander and shop at your leisure. In the tranquil echoes of history and the vibrant energy of everyday life, you'll truly understand the captivating essence of Sonoma.

Artesa Vineyards & Winery

Artesa Vineyards & Winery has been honored with the title of "Vineyard with the Best Scenery." Perched atop a sun-drenched hill, the estate was designed by renowned architect Cliff May, masterfully blending the vibrant charm of traditional Spanish red clay tiles with the elegant style of Napa Valley. "Artesa" means "craftsman" or "handcrafted" in Catalan, and the architecture itself is a vivid embodiment of this philosophy. Here, you can savor two signature wines: a Pinot Noir, offering delicate notes of strawberry and cherry with a light, refined body; and a Chardonnay, exuding aromas of citrus and butter, delivering a rich, smooth texture. Between sips, lift your eyes to the courtyard, where an exquisite fountain and sculptures create a harmonious interplay.

Battery Spencer

Battery Spencer was originally a military base at the Golden Gate Bridge during World War II, but its military use was later abandoned. Its proximity to the Golden Gate Bridge makes it an ideal spot for both distant views and photographic opportunities, making it a popular tourist destination.

MORNING

Transportation: Drive from hotel to San Francisco

Distance: 50 mi · Time: 1h

ALL DAY

Golden Gate Bridge

The Golden Gate Bridge is one of the world's largest single-span suspension bridges and is considered a symbol of San Francisco. Spanning 2.7 kilometers, it spans the entire San Francisco Bay and the Golden Gate Strait in the Pacific Ocean, serving as a vital transportation hub connecting San Francisco with cities to the north. American blockbusters such as "Rise of the Planet of the Apes" and "X-Men" have also been filmed here.

Palace of Fine Art

The San Francisco Palace of Fine Arts was built in 1915 for the Panama Pacific International Exposition. After the conference, the Palace of Fine Arts gradually fell into disuse and eventually became a ruin. It was not until 1962 that the famous German architect Maybeck redesigned and renovated it, giving it a second youthful beauty.

Lombard Street

Lombard Street is known as the "world's most crooked street". Many movies such as "Venom" have filmed racing scenes here. It is one of the most popular landmarks in San Francisco. Every year, millions of tourists walk or drive through its eight sharp turns. It is surrounded by the mansions of Russian Hill, well-manicured landscapes and flowers, and is also one of the most scenic streets in the city. From the top of the mountain, you can overlook the breathtaking view of San Francisco Bay, the Bay Bridge and Coit Tower.

San Francisco Fisherman's Wharf

Fisherman's Wharf is a household name in San Francisco. Starting from Ghirardelli Square and extending to Pier 35, you can see the busiest Pier 39 with its various shops, restaurants, and street performances, as well as the views of Alcatraz, the Golden Gate Bridge, and the Bay Bridge.

San Francisco Bay Cruise

The beautiful Golden Gate Bridge and the spectacular Oakland Bay Bridge are the faces of San Francisco. You can visit these two attractions one by one by taking a cruise. The cruise passes under the beautiful bridge, and you can feel the sea breeze on your face and feel relaxed and happy. You can also get a close look at the spectacular scenery of Alcatraz Island. Such a trip will definitely bring you very good memories.

San Francisco Civic Center Plaza

San Francisco Civic Center Plaza, also known as Joseph L. Alioto Plaza, is situated in the heart of downtown San Francisco. It stretches north to City Hall, south to Fulton Plaza, and east to the California State Supreme Court building. The area showcases a variety of architectural styles, with City Hall—constructed in 1915 in the French Renaissance design—serving as its iconic centerpiece. Additionally, the plaza functions as a cultural and artistic hub, home to premier performance venues such as the Louise M. Davies Symphony Hall.

Twin Peaks

The two hills, about 270 meters above sea level, are also the only natural hills preserved in San Francisco. They are famous for their 360-degree panoramic views. Twin Peaks are the two main commanding heights in San Francisco, and there is an 8-shaped road surrounding the two peaks. The mountaintop observation deck here has a panoramic view of the beauty of San Francisco because there are no dense trees blocking it. Looking down from the peak, the bustling San Francisco city view and the charming bay scenery will make you intoxicated.

Bryce Canyon National Park, located in southwestern Utah, is not a true canyon, despite its name. Its unique geological formations, known as rock pillars, are formed by wind, river water, and ice erosion, along with sedimentary rocks from lakebeds. The red, orange, and white rocks within these formations create a unique natural landscape, earning it the nickname "Palace of Natural Stone Figurines."

MORNING

Transportation: Drive from hotel to Antelope Canyon / Horseshoe Bend

Distance: 10 mi · Time: 0h20m

MORNING

Lower Antelope Canyon

The Lower Antelope Canyon is located in the north of Arizona, USA. It is formed by soft sandstone after millions of years of various erosion forces. Flash floods often flow into the canyon during the monsoon season. Due to the sudden increase in rainfall, the flow rate of the flash flood is quite fast. In addition, the narrow channel narrows the river channel, so the vertical erosion force is relatively large, forming the corridor at the bottom of the Lower Antelope Canyon and the hard and smooth edges on the valley wall that look like flowing water. There is no artificial lighting in the Lower Antelope Canyon. All visible light comes from the cracks at the top of the canyon. These lights are repeatedly refracted by the rock texture and enter the valley bottom, producing a dreamy and irregular color change. These colors are from deep to light, colorful and beautiful.

Horseshoe Bend

Horseshoe Bend – One of the top ten best photography spots in the United States selected by National Geographic Magazine! The dense aquatic plants on the Colorado River bed make the river water appear fluorescent green in the sun. The river turns 360 degrees in the reddish-brown canyon here, cutting out a horseshoe-shaped canyon, hence the name Horseshoe Bend. Standing on the edge of the cliff, you will be intoxicated by the breathtaking beauty of the blue water, blue sky and red rocks.

MORNING

Transportation: Drive from Horseshoe Bend to Grand Canyon National Park

Distance: 110 mi · Time: 2h

AFTERNOON

Grand Canyon National Park

Grand Canyon National Park, located in northwestern Arizona, is the 15th site in the United States to have been named as a national park. The park's central feature is the Grand Canyon, a gorge of the Colorado River, which is often considered one of the Wonders of the World. The park, which covers 1,217,262 acres of unincorporated area in Coconino and Mohave counties, has received more than six million recreational visitors in 2017, which is the second highest count of visits in all American national parks after the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. The Grand Canyon was designated a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1979.
