NIGHT

Orlando Night Tour

Your evening tour will take you to Disney Springs, Orlando's most vibrant and bustling destination. It's a carnival-style town that never sleeps, featuring unique restaurants, street performances, and unique shopping. The town is dotted with Spanish-style architecture and countless Florida's unique "cold springs," with their shimmering, crystal-clear waters, creating a truly breathtaking spectacle. A variety of exquisite restaurants, such as the Dinosaur Restaurant and the Rainforest Restaurant, will delight your taste buds. After a sumptuous dinner, you can enjoy free street performances by Disney's lavishly commissioned artists. Disney Springs is also home to the renowned Cirque du Soleil. Alternatively, you can explore the world's largest Disney arcade, the largest LEGO store, and dozens of other specialty shops for a truly magical and romantic evening.

LEGOLAND Water Park
Aquatica Water Park Orlando

Universal Epic Universe

Single-day single park ticket

If you plan to visit multiple parks (such as Universal, Disney, etc.) during your stay in Orlando, and have already decided which day to EPIC, this type is the best choice! You only need to pay an additional $60/person as a "happy fund" (reservation fee) to arrange admission to the park.
Warm tips: Given the current high popularity of the park, all admission places must be booked in advance. Since this ticket type is a specified date ticket and can only be used on the day of reservation, please confirm the travel date when booking the tour.
Whether the reservation is successful will depend on the actual opening situation of the park at that time.

Multi-day cross-park ticket

If guests plan to enjoy a three-day in-depth tour of Universal Studios during their stay in Orlando, and want to get 100% admission to EPIC Universal Studios, buy this ticket! It is especially suitable for guests who only focus on visiting the three major parks of Universal Studios and do not arrange itineraries for other parks. Only an additional $60/person is required as an "upgrade fee" (reservation fee) to unlock access to three major parks: Universal Studios, Islands of Adventure, and Epic Universe! There are more surprise benefits: you can take the same "Hogwarts Train" as Harry Potter, travel between Universal Studios and Islands of Adventure, and have an immersive magical experience!
Warm tips: No reservation is required for multi-day cross-park ticket!

Special 1-day Tour

Q1A: Kennedy Space Center 1-day Tour (Wed/Frid/Sun departure, minimum 2 people)

Q1B: Gulf of Mexico 1-day Tour (Depart every Thursday from April to September, minimum 2 people)

Q1S: Silver Springs with Glass-bottom Boat and Kayak Boats 1-day-Tour(Depart on Tuesday and Thursday from April to September and from October to March of the following year, minimum 2 people)

Charter the minivan as a private tour, no chance of getting Covid-19 from unknown passengers: $200/day, 7-seat minivan, small group with 1-6 passengers. Cost excludes $15/person/day service fee.

Note:

LEGOLAND Theme Park will be available every day. LEGOLAND Water Park will be available seasonally. LEGOLAND Water Park is a limited option with LEGOLAND Theme Park. Guests who choose to visit LEGOLAND Theme Park may pay an additional upgrade fee of $30 per person for the admission to LEGOLAND Water Park. Each group of guests will be charged an extra transportation and service fee: $100 for 1-4 persons, $20 for each additional person (the service fee is $15/person/day).

ALL DAY

Magic Kingdom

The very first park and especially your very first visit to the Disney parks should be the Magic Kingdom! Although this park may not be the biggest of the Disney parks, it has the most to offer! From thrill rides and attractions, to meeting princesses and watching shows, there is something perfect for everyone to enjoy! Magic Kingdom is divided into six lands, Tomorrowland, Main St. USA, Liberty Square, Adventureland, Fantasyland, and Frontierland! All of the lands meet in front of the beautiful Cinderella Castle!

Epcot

Walt Disney world’s second-oldest park welcomes you to Epcot! Epcot consists of two parks in one. You can travel to the future in the Future World or travel across the world in the World Showcase! Future World offers attractions dedicated to space, fantasy and life in the water. The World Showcase allows you to visit over 11 countries known as Epcot’s “pavilions” from around the world and experience their cultural heritage, authentic architecture, and foods! There are even several boat rides, movies and shows that will give you an insight into the country that you’re in! There are even children’s fun stops where children can collect stamps in every country that they visit with Duffy the Disney bear! The top favorites and must-visit countries in Epcot are France, Germany, Norway, and Japan!

Disney's Hollywood Studios

Do you have what it takes to step inside into the legendary cockpit of the Millennium Falcon or ride in a limo on the Rock n’ roller coaster? Or do you dream of walking into Andy’s room from the toy’s perspective in Toy Story land, or getting to customize and build your own lightsaber in Star Wars Galaxy Edge or even stepping into the Twilight Zone in the Tower of Terror? If so, Hollywood Studios is the top pick for you! Hollywood Studios most visited areas include Hollywood Boulevard, Sunset Boulevard, Animation Courtyard, Toy Story Land, Pixar Place and the all-time famous Star Wars: Galaxy Edge!

Disney's Animal Kingdom

The largest of all the Disney World theme parks is Animal Kingdom! Animal Kingdom is divided into different lands of Oasis, including Pandora (the world of Avatar), Africa, Asia and DinoLand USA which all surround the discovery island. Discovery Island is also where the Tree of Life stands. The Tree of Life is a gigantic tree that showcases animals at its base and is also the central focus and icon of the park! So, if you feel lost at any point in your adventure, look for the tree and you'll be good to go!

Universal Studios

Welcome to Universal Studios! Enjoy a day filled with unlimited memories! Universal Studios is the world's premier movie and TV based theme park! Universal Studios Florida inspires its guests to "ride the movies", and it features numerous attractions and live shows to watch. The park is one component of the larger Universal Orlando Resort. And, it's the perfect place to spend an awesome day with you or your family!

Islands of Adventure

The Islands of Adventure are one of two parks of Universal Studios! The park's major theme is the Wizarding World of Harry Potter! You can make your way to Hogwarts school of witchcraft and wizardry to meet Harry Potter and his friends! You can also enjoy thriller roller coaster rides in Jurassic world like VelociCoaster or the incredible Hulk ride that shoots you out into the sky at 67mph!

Universal's Volcano Bay

Volcano Bay is a water park constructed as part of Universal Orlando Resort! Volcano Bay is a uniquely designed water park that is perfect for anyone to enjoy! The centerpiece of Volcano Bay is the Krakatau Volcano which stands 200ft above the park! The park has a lazy river, a plunge drop ride, a water, river and rainforest village and so much more!

SeaWorld Orlando

SeaWorld Orlando is one of the most popular theme parks in the world! It is famously known as home to different sea life, and has various species of sharks, killer whales, dolphins, stingrays, flamingos, sea-lions and so much more! The park offers up-close animal experiences, including incredible rides and beautiful shows to watch! Your visit to SeaWorld also helps in supporting marine life rescues.

Aquatica Water Park Orlando

Aquatica Water Park is known as the sister park of SeaWorld! The park offers two wave pools, a number of slides, animal habitats, and so much more! If you want a more thrilling ride and are brave enough, you could ride the tallest, steepest, and fastest free fall ride at Breakaway Falls! Aquatica is also perfect for children with designated play spots for fun and has breathtaking water exhibits! There is also a very popular dolphin plunge ride where you ride in a fully closed slide and see dolphins!

Typhoon Lagoon

The other water park is called Typhoon Lagoon! At this water park you will experience a more tropical feel and find dense vegetation throughout the park, washed-up fish nets, rocks, and sand. Some of the top attractions include a huge wave pool called the Typhoon Lagoon Surf Pool and Humunga Kowabunga which sends riders down five stories of rushing water and is one of the most favorite rides that the park has to offer!

Blizzard Water Park

Do you love water parks? Well, you're in luck because Disney just doesn't have one water park but two! Better yet, one of them is a winter inspired theme known as Blizzard beach! Blizzard beach even has a waterslide Summit Plummet drop, dropping you almost 12-stories straight down and reaching top speeds of 65 mph. But, if speed isn't your thing, you can enjoy the Cross County Creek, a 3,000ft lazy river where you can relax and let the water take you along for the ride! One can't-miss-attraction at this winter-themed waterpark is the ski lift, which is likely the only one you'll ever find in Florida!

LEGOLAND Theme Park Orlando

Join us for an unforgettable experience at LEGOLAND! LEGOLAND is a dream come true park for anyone that enjoys LEGOS! This 150acre theme park has more than 50 rides, awesome shows to watch and attractions that make this park so amazing!

LEGOLAND Water Park

LEGOLAND water park is the perfect family-friendly opportunity to have a wonderful day! This water park is filled with lots of fun with LEGO water-play structures, tube slides, a wave pool, lazy river and so much more! It's perfect for a hot and sunny Florida day!

Universal Epic Universe

This new theme park will surpass Universal Studios and Islands of Adventure to become Universal's largest theme park in history. The five carefully crafted theme areas in the park are full of surprises: step into the Harry Potter Ministry of Magic, and the mystery of the magical world will hit you; in Super Nintendo World, childishness and adventure are perfectly combined; How to Train Your Dragon Isle of Berk takes you into a fantasy dimension; the Dark Universe is full of unknown excitement; and there is also the mysterious Celestial Park. Every place can make you immerse and have fun!

Day 6

Day 6

Miami City Tour□Bus□Everglades National Park

ALL DAY

Miami is celebrated as a vibrant cultural melting pot, deeply influenced by its large Latin American community and Caribbean populations. Its close cultural and linguistic ties to North, South, and Central America, as well as the Caribbean, have even earned it the nickname "Capital of the Americas." To the west of downtown Miami lies the Everglades National Park, a breathtaking expanse of wetlands, towering pine forests, and sprawling mangrove forests that provide sanctuary to countless wildlife species. As the largest subtropical wilderness reserve in the continental United States, it’s a haven for nature lovers and adventure seekers alike!

Itinerary:

Coral Gables (Pass by) ? Biltmore Hotel (Outside visit) ? Wynwood Walls (20 mins) ? South Beach (45 mins) ? Freedom Tower at Miami Dade College (Pass by) ? FTX Arena (Pass by) ? Miami Bay Cruise (Optional, 90 mins) ? Everglades National Park ? Everglades Airboat (Optional, 60 mins, including rare animal performances) ? Little Havana (30 mins)

ALL DAY

Coral Gables

Coral Gables, a wealthy Miami neighborhood established around the 1820s, boasts a distinctly Spanish character, shaded by trees and surrounded by flowers. Its lush, tree-lined boulevards are lined with luxurious mansions steeped in exotic traditions, making it a popular destination for many American celebrities. The iconic Hotel Baltimore, renowned for its role as a hospital during World War II and its hospitalization of numerous casualties, was a favorite of President and Mrs. Clinton.

Wynwood Walls

Open to the public and free of charge are the amazing Wynwood Walls! It was established in 2009 as an outdoor museum of international street art. Examine an artist dream street here in Wynwood! It is filled with beautiful murals and dedicated artwork on every wall that you walk by!

South Beach

This beach in Miami, Florida, boasts one of the world's most vibrant nightlife, fashion, and entertainment destinations. Furthermore, it boasts numerous cultural institutions, including museums, theaters, and historical sites. For a true glimpse into Miami, South Beach is the perfect choice. It has become Miami's most renowned leisure and entertainment destination, home to hundreds of bars, restaurants, boutiques, and hotels. Its azure waters and silvery sands exude a unique charm.

Freedom Tower at Miami Dade College

Built in 1925, the Freedom Tower is an emblem of the ideal of America as a democratic haven for those seeking freedom and opportunity. From 1962 to 1974, it served as the Cuban Assistance Center. Following several decades of neglect, the Tower was rescued by Cuban American community leaders seeking to honor the Cuban legacy in Miami, who donated it to Miami Dade College in 2005.

FTX Arena

The FTX Arena (formerly known as the American Airlines Arena) is a sports and entertainment arena located in Downtown Miami near Biscayne Bay. It was constructed in the beginning of 1998 as a replacement for the Miami Arena and was designed by the architecture firms Arquitectonica and 360 Architecture. The Arena is home to the Miami Heat of the National Basketball Association.

Miami Bay Cruise

Visit Miami Bay and marvel at the stunning seascape. You can also get up close to Star Island, admire the billionaire mansions of world-famous celebrities, and gaze out over downtown Miami, the second-largest financial center in the United States. No words can truly describe the beauty of Biscayne Bay. The azure waters, gentle breeze, and captivating "Water World" all contribute to the endless allure of Biscayne National Park.

Everglades National Park

Everglades National Park, located in southern Florida, is the largest subtropical wetland park in the United States and the third-largest national park in the country. Covering approximately 1.4 million acres, it is home to a wide variety of wildlife, including birds and alligators. The park has multiple entrances, with the main entrance featuring a visitor center where you can pick up a park map and consult staff for directions. Driving, tour buses, sightseeing boats, hiking, and cycling are the main ways to explore the park. Water activities and jungle adventures require advance reservations.

Everglades Airboat

Here, we will experience an Airboat tour of a lifetime! See for yourself what it is truly like to be part of the swamp and if you are lucky enough you can even capture an up-close picture of a gator too!

Little Havana

This is the famous Cuban Quarter, a must-see for tourists from around the world to visit Cuban cigar workshops, sample specialty Cuban coffee, and experience the exotic charm of Central and South America. Here, there are numerous restaurants, bars, and shops offering unique souvenirs, artwork, books, audiovisual products, and Cuban cigars. Little Havana's rich Cuban ambiance can make you feel like you're in the United States. Little Havana's architecture and streets are full of Cuban influences, and you can even smell the air filled with the scent of Cuban cigars, accompanied by the sounds of meguere and salsa.

Hotel: SpringHill Suites by Marriott Miami Airport South Blue Lagoon Area / EVEN Hotel Miami - Airport / similar

Day 7

Day 7

Key West

ALL DAY

Drive 180 miles south from the hotel to the very end of the Florida Keys—Key West, known as the "End of the World." Along the way, the vibrant colors of the sea and the azure sky create a uniquely beautiful scene. During the approximately 4.5-hour drive (in good road conditions), you'll pass through a magnificent "cross-sea bridge" on U.S. Highway 1, known as the "Eighth Wonder of the World," comprised of 42 bridges of varying lengths and 32 islands. Finally, arrive at Key West for a guided tour.

Itinerary:

Heading to Key West ? Drive on Route 1 ? Key West Island Classic Tour (Mandatory, 2 hours) ? Free Time on Key West Island (1 hours)

Key West Island Classic Tour: Seven-Mile Bridge (30 mins) ? United States Route 1 Beginning Mile 0 (10 mins) ? Outside Visit Hemingway Home & Southernmost Point Buoy (20 mins)

Recommended activities for free time: After finishing the tour of the above attractions, you will have 2 hours of free time to explore the charming attractions on the island. After a leisurely lunch, you may visit popular sea-sighting spots such as the Truman Little White House, the Harbor area and the Old Customs House, or go to the Seaside Plaza for some shopping!

AFTERNOON

Key West

Deep in the Caribbean Sea lies a string of coral reef islands known as the Florida Keys, resembling pearls scattered across the ocean, dazzling and captivating. The southernmost of these is Key West. Key West is the southernmost town in the continental United States, earning it the nickname "Sunset Land." Despite its small permanent population, the island is visited by tourists year-round. The vibrantly colored houses dominate the landscape, while neatly planted paths lined with lush palm trees and dotted with vibrant flowers create a truly captivating scene.

Southernmost Point Buoy

The Southernmost Point Buoy is an anchored concrete buoy located in Key West, Florida. It is the southernmost point in the continental United States at just about 18 feet above sea level. The large painted buoy was established as a tourist attraction in 1983 by the city at the corner of South Street and Whitehead Street. Today, it is one of the most visited and photographed attractions in the entire United States!

Hemingway Home & Museum

The Ernest Hemingway Home and Museum is located on Key West Island in Florida, USA. Hemingway lived there for only ten years, a period that marked the peak of his writing career, with many of his most important works penned here. The home still retains its original appearance, including books and magazines scattered throughout and a living room ready for entertaining friends. Entering the courtyard, one is greeted by a serene and tranquil atmosphere of lush greenery and blooms. At the end of a short corridor, nestled among the canopy of trees and flowers, lies a Spanish-style two-story building. Its lemon-yellow walls, grass-green window frames, and dark blue roof create a sense of depth and remoteness.

Hotel: SpringHill Suites by Marriott Miami Airport South Blue Lagoon Area / EVEN Hotel Miami - Airport / similar

Day 8

Day 8

Fort Lauderdale Bus Lion Country Safari Bus Palm Beach

ALL DAY

Heading north of Miami, you'll visit Fort Lauderdale, the renowned "Yacht Capital of the World." You'll explore the "Venice of America," admiring the mansions lining its banks and the towering masts of the waterways. The canals crisscross like a spiderweb, and you'll also enjoy strolling along Fort Lauderdale Beach, one of the top ten beaches in the United States. Next, you'll visit the Southern United States' only wildlife park offering both a drive-through and walking tour, where you'll encounter nearly a thousand wild animals up close, reminiscent of the African savannah. We'll then pass through West Palm Beach and head to Palm Beach Island. Known as Florida's "Cultural Capital," Palm Beach became the first winter escape for America's wealthy over 100 years ago. Enjoy breathtaking views of the Atlantic Ocean and the countless exorbitantly priced beachfront villas.

Itinerary:

Heading to Fort Lauderdale ? Fort Lauderdale Beach (45 mins) ? Lion Country Safari (Optional, 90 mins) ? Palm Beach Island ? US President Donald Trump's private mansion Mar a Lag (Pass by) ? Henry Morrison Flagler Museum (Outside visit) ? Palm Beach (40 mins)

MORNING

Fort Lauderdale Beach

Fort Lauderdale, known as the Venice of America, is about an hour's drive from Miami. It boasts unique Palm Beach, a city center encompassing waterways, lakes, and rivers, and a 12-kilometer-long white sand beach lined with palm trees. The pristine waters flow from the warm, clear Atlantic Ocean. Fort Lauderdale Beach is ranked among the ten most beautiful beaches in the United States, boasting pristine white sand and perfect for a winter getaway.

Lion Country Safari

The only animal kingdom in the Southern United States that combines both a drive-in and walk-through experience, this zoo offers close encounters with nearly a thousand wild animals, reminiscent of the African savannah. Encounter over 900 species, including lions, white rhinos, chimpanzees, zebras, giraffes, and the ever-popular alpaca. Besides the dazzling exhibits, you can also experience animal feedings and participate in activities like jet boat rides. At this premier animal kingdom, you're guaranteed an unforgettable experience, experiencing close encounters with animals. If you're lucky, you'll also be able to attend major zoo events such as World Oceans Day and art performances.

Palm Beach

Palm Beach is located on an island 65 kilometers north of Miami, bordered by the Intracoastal Waterway to the west and the Atlantic Ocean to the east. As the land closest to the Gulf Stream, Palm Beach Island is named for its lush vegetation and the towering palm trees that line its beaches. Its superior maritime climate places it among the world's top tourist destinations. Its beautiful natural scenery, diverse cultural landscapes, and vibrant social scene make it a beloved paradise for travelers from around the world.
